INTRODUCTION

1
2 1. Elasticsearch, Inc. and elasticsearch B.V. (collectively “Elastic”) bring this action
3 to remedy Amazon.com, Inc.’s and Amazon Web Services, Inc.’s (collectively “Amazon”)
4 infringement of Elastic’s incontestable ELASTICSEARCH® trademark and related false
5 advertising.

6 2. Elastic is the creator of the Elastic Stack suite of products. Elastic Stack is centered
7 on the popular and powerful ELASTICSEARCH search and analytics engine. Over the years,
8 Elastic has built its ELASTICSEARCH product into the core of a product line that leading 9 companies like Ebay, Adobe, Walmart, Optum, Cisco Systems, and Facebook use and depend on.
10 As defendant Amazon’s own marketing for one of its infringing offerings states, “Elasticsearch 11 has become an essential technology for log analytics and search”¹

12 3. Amazon markets two offerings that infringe the ELASTICSEARCH mark:
13 Amazon Elasticsearch Service (“AESS”) and Open Distro for Elasticsearch (“Open Distro”).
14 AESS is a software as a service (“SAAS”) offering that Amazon markets as a “Fully managed,
15 scalable, and secure Elasticsearch service.”² Amazon markets Open Distro as “[a]n Apache 2.0-16 licensed distribution of Elasticsearch enhanced with enterprise security, alerting, SQL, and 17 more.”³

18 4. Amazon’s branding for AESS and Open Distro infringes Elastic’s
19 ELASTICSEARCH mark. Due to Amazon’s misleading use of the ELASTICSEARCH mark, 20 consumers of search and analytics software are, at least, likely to be confused as to whether 21 Elastic sponsors or approves AESS and Open Distro.

22 5. Amazon’s misleading use of ELASTICSEARCH also misrepresents the nature,
23 characteristics, and/or qualities of AESS because, on information and belief, AESS (1) disables
24 certain functionality available from Elastic’s ELASTICSEARCH product, and (2) includes

28 ² <https://aws.amazon.com/elasticsearch-service/>

³ <https://opendistro.github.io/for-elasticsearch/>

1 software code not offered by Elastic in any ELASTICSEARCH product. Amazon's use of the 2 ELASTICSEARCH mark therefore constitutes false advertising.

3 PARTIES

4 6. Plaintiff Elasticsearch, Inc. is incorporated in Delaware; it has its principal place of 5 business in Mountain View, California. Plaintiff elasticsearch B.V. is incorporated in the 6 Netherlands.

7 7. Defendant Amazon.com, Inc. is incorporated in Delaware, with its principal place
8 of business in Seattle, Washington. On information and belief, defendant Amazon.com, Inc.
9 maintains an office or offices located within the Northern District of California.

10 8. Defendant Amazon Web Services, Inc. is incorporated in Delaware with its 11 principal place of business in Seattle, Washington. On information and belief, defendant Amazon
12 Web Services, Inc. maintains an office or offices located within the Northern District of 13 California. On information and belief, defendant Amazon Web Services, Inc. is a wholly-owned 14 subsidiary of defendant Amazon.com, Inc. and, at all times relevant to the allegations herein, has 15 acted in concert with and/or at the direction of defendant Amazon.com, Inc.

16 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

17 9. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338
18 and 15 U.S.C. § 1121.

19 10. Venue lies within this district because a substantial part of the events giving rise to 20 these claims occurred in this district and Amazon resides in this judicial district for purposes of 21 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c).

22 INTRADISTRICT ASSIGNMENT

23 11. Because this action arises from Elastic's assertion of its intellectual property
24 rights, Northern District of California Local Rule 3.2(c) excludes this action from the division-
25 specific venue rule and subjects this action to assignment on a district-wide basis.

26 THE ELASTICSEARCH MARK

27 12. In 2010, Elastic's founder, Shay Banon, launched the original ELASTICSEARCH
28 product. ELASTICSEARCH is a powerful search and analytics engine that allows users to

1 perform and combine many types of searches in any way that meets their particular needs. Over
2 the years, Elastic has built the successive versions of its ELASTICSEARCH product into the core
3 of a premier search and analytics brand.

4 13. Elastic has devoted significant time, money, and effort to promoting its 5 ELASTICSEARCH product and the ELASTICSEARCH mark. Consumers of search and 6 analytics software recognize that the ELASTICSEARCH mark indicates that Elastic is the source
7 of the ELASTICSEARCH search and analytics engine.

8 14. ELASTICSEARCH is a registered trademark with the United States Patent and 9 Trademark office, with a priority date of September 18, 2011, and a registration date of 10 September 12, 2012. The trademark registration number for the ELASTICSEARCH mark is 11 4212205. Elastic owns this trademark registration.

12 15. Elastic has used its ELASTICSEARCH mark continuously since its September 25, 13 2012, registration date. As such, the ELASTICSEARCH registration is incontestable and 14 provides conclusive evidence of the mark's validity and of Elastic's ownership and exclusive
15 right to use the ELASTICSEARCH mark. See 15 U.S.C. §§ 1065, 1115(b).

16 AMAZON'S INFRINGEMENT OF THE ELASTICSEARCH MARK

17 16. Amazon markets AESS as "a fully managed service that makes it easy for you to 18 deploy, secure, and operate Elasticsearch at scale with zero down time." According to Amazon, 19 AESS gives Amazon's customers "direct access to the Elasticsearch APIs" and "makes it easy to 20 deploy, operate, and scale Elasticsearch clusters in the AWS Cloud."⁴ Elastic offers SAAS
21 services that compete with AESS.

28 ⁴ <https://docs.aws.amazon.com/elasticsearch-service/latest/developerguide/what-is-amazon-elasticsearch-service.html>

1 17. Amazon's use of the ELASTICSEARCH mark in connection with AESS is likely
 2 to confuse consumers as to, at least, Elastic's sponsorship and/or approval of AESS. Amazon's
 3 landing page for AESS appears as follows:

17 That landing page makes no effort to communicate to consumers that Elastic does not sponsor or 18 approve AESS, nor does that page state that Elastic owns the ELASTICSEARCH mark. Further, 19 Amazon has increased the likelihood of confusion regarding AESS by falsely representing to the 20 consuming public that AESS is a “great partnership” between Elastic and AWS. A tweet from the 21 Vice President and Chief Technical Officer of Amazon.com, Inc. reads:

Neither at the time of that tweet nor at any relevant time has there ever been a “partnership” between Elastic and Amazon with respect to AESS.

18. AESS, moreover, misleads consumers into thinking that AESS provides a genuine ELASTICSEARCH product when, on information and belief, it does not. AESS does not offer consumers all of the functionality that Elastic’s ELASTICSEARCH-branded product offers. In particular, on information and belief, the software available through AESS includes additional code that is not included in any ELASTICSEARCH-branded product offered by Elastic. And, on

1 information and belief, AESS blocks some application program interfaces (“APIs”) that Elastic
2 includes in its ELASTICSEARCH-branded product.

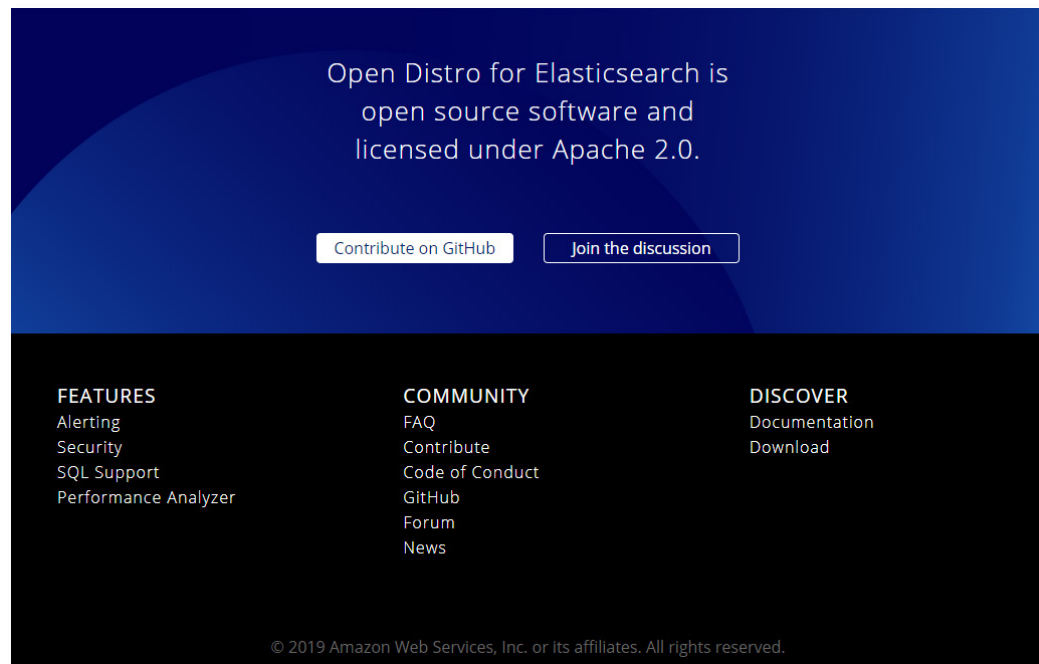

3 19. On or about March 11, 2019, Amazon escalated its misuse of Elastic’s
4 ELASTICSEARCH mark: on that date, Amazon began marketing a second offering, Open Distro,
5 that also uses the ELASTICSEARCH mark. Amazon described Open Distro as “a value-added
6 distribution of Elasticsearch that is 100% open source (Apache 2.0 license) and supported by 7 AWS.”⁵ Amazon’s landing page for Open Distro appears as follows:

20 20. Amazon’s use of the ELASTICSEARCH mark in connection with Open Distro is 21 likely to confuse consumers as to, at least, Elastic’s sponsorship and/or approval of Open Distro.
22 Amazon’s landing page for Open Distro makes no effort to communicate to consumers that 23 Elastic does not sponsor or approve Open Distro, nor does that page state that Elastic owns the 24 ELASTICSEARCH mark. Further, Amazon fails to clearly communicate to consumers that 25 Amazon is the source of Open Distro. With one small exception, Amazon’s own marks, such as 26 AWS, do not appear on the landing page for Open Distro. The word “Amazon” only appears once
27

28 ⁵ <https://aws.amazon.com/blogs/opensource/running-open-distro-for-elasticsearch/>

1 on the page, in the miniscule copyright notice at the very bottom of the page, as shown below.
 2 Nor does the Open Distro site use the color scheme typically observed on Amazon’s web pages.

21. No license or authorization allows Amazon to use the ELASTICSEARCH mark in the way it does. Elastic’s “Guidelines for using Elasticsearch trademarks and service marks” forbid Amazon’s infringing use of the ELASTICSEARCH mark. Among other things, those guidelines specify that (1) the ELASTICSEARCH mark may not be part of any product name, (2) any use of the ELASTICSEARCH mark must be less prominent in placement and size than the other product name, (3) the use of the ELASTICSEARCH mark must not create a sense of affiliation with or endorsement by Elastic, and (4) the use of the ELASTICSEARCH mark must include proper attribution of mark ownership to Elastic.⁶ Amazon’s use of ELASTICSEARCH violates each of those guidelines.

26
27

22. Further, Amazon cannot plausibly contend that Elastic’s guidelines are misguided or impractical, because Amazon imposes materially similar restrictions on the use of Amazon’s marks. For example, Amazon’s guidelines prohibit the display of “any AWS Mark as the largest

28

⁶ <https://www.elastic.co/legal/trademarks>

1 or most prominent trademark in any materials” and require that users of the AWS mark
2 “distinguish the AWS Mark from the name of Your Content.”⁷

3 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4 Trademark Infringement

5 (15 U.S.C. §§ 1114-1117, 1125)

6 23. Elastic incorporates by reference each of the allegations in the preceding
7 paragraphs of this complaint as if fully set forth herein.

8 24. Elastic owns the valid and incontestable ELASTICSEARCH mark. Consumers of 9 search and analytics software recognize the ELASTICSEARCH mark as designating Elastic as
10 the source of services and/or goods. At all relevant times, Amazon had actual and/or statutory
11 notice of Elastic’s ELASTICSEARCH registration.

12 25. Amazon uses in commerce the ELASTICSEARCH mark in connection with, and 13 in commercial advertising or promotion of, its AESS and Open Distro service and products.
14 Amazon’s use of the ELASTICSEARCH mark constitutes a false designation of origin and/or a 15 false or misleading description or representation of fact that is likely to cause confusion, to cause
16 mistake, or to deceive as to (a) the affiliation, connection, and/or association of Amazon with 17 Elastic and/or (b) the origin, sponsorship, and/or approval of Amazon’s goods, services, or 18 commercial activities by Elastic.

19 26. Amazon’s wrongful activities have caused Elastic irreparable injury. Elastic is 20 informed and believes that unless said conduct is enjoined by this Court, Amazon will continue
21 and expand those activities to the continued and irreparable injury of Elastic. This injury includes
22 a reduction in the distinctiveness of Elastic’s ELASTICSEARCH mark and injury to Elastic’s
23 goodwill that damages cannot remedy. Elastic has no adequate remedy at law. Elastic is entitled 24 to a permanent injunction pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116, restraining and enjoining Amazon and its 25 agents, servants, employees, and all persons acting thereunder, in concert with, or on their behalf,
26 from using in commerce the ELASTICSEARCH mark or any colorable imitation thereof.

27
28

⁷ <https://aws.amazon.com/trademark-guidelines/>

1 27. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, Elastic is also entitled to recover (i) Amazon’s
 2 profits, increased to adequately compensate Elastic, (ii) up to treble Elastic’s ascertainable
 3 damages, (iii) Elastic’s costs of suit, and (iv) prejudgment interest. Amazon’s willful use of
 4 Elastic’s ELASTICSEARCH mark without excuse or justification renders this an exceptional
 5 case and entitles Elastic to its reasonable attorney fees and to all amounts by which Amazon has
 6 been unjustly enriched through its use of Elastic’s ELASTICSEARCH mark.

7 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

8 False Description/Advertising

9 (15 U.S.C. § 1125)

10 28. Elastic incorporates by reference each of the allegations in the preceding
 11 paragraphs of this complaint as if fully set forth herein.

12 29. Elastic owns the valid and incontestable ELASTICSEARCH mark. Consumers of 13 search and analytics software recognize the ELASTICSEARCH mark as designating Elastic as 14 the source of services and/or goods. At all relevant times, Amazon had actual and/or statutory
 15 notice of Elastic’s ELASTICSEARCH registration.

16 30. Amazon uses in commerce the ELASTICSEARCH mark in connection with, and
 17 in commercial advertising or promotion of, AESS. Amazon’s use of the ELASTICSEARCH 18 mark constitutes a false advertisement that misrepresents the nature, characteristics and/or 19 qualities of AESS and/or deceives and/or has a tendency to deceive a substantial segment of 20 consumers into believing that AESS has the nature, characteristics, and/or qualities of an 21 ELASTICSEARCH-branded product offered by Elastic. This deception is likely to influence
 22 consumers’ purchasing decisions about AESS, thereby diverting revenues from Elastic to 23 Amazon.

24 31. Amazon’s wrongful activities have caused Elastic irreparable injury. Elastic is
 25 informed and believes that unless said conduct is enjoined by this Court, Amazon will continue
 26 and expand those activities to the continued and irreparable injury of Elastic. This injury includes 27 a lessening of the goodwill associated with Elastic’s ELASTICSEARCH mark and injury to 28 Elastic’s reputation that damages cannot remedy. Elastic has no adequate remedy at law. Elastic

1 is entitled to a permanent injunction pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116 restraining and enjoining
2 Amazon and its agents, servants, employees, and all persons acting thereunder, in concert with, or 3 on their behalf, from using in commerce the ELASTICSEARCH mark or any colorable imitation
4 thereof.

5 32. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, Elastic is also entitled to recover (i) Amazon's
6 profits, increased to adequately compensate Elastic, (ii) up to treble Elastic's ascertainable
7 damages, (iii) Elastic's costs of suit, and (iv) prejudgment interest. Amazon's willful use of
8 Elastic's ELASTICSEARCH mark without excuse or justification renders this an exceptional
9 case and entitles Elastic to its reasonable attorney fees and to all amounts by which Amazon has
10 been unjustly enriched through its use of Elastic's ELASTICSEARCH mark.

11 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

12 Elastic prays for judgment as follows:

13 1. Enter a permanent injunction restraining and enjoining Amazon and its agents, 14 servants, employees, and all persons acting thereunder, in concert with, or on their behalf, from 15 using in commerce the ELASTICSEARCH mark in any way that would mislead or confuse 16 consumers;

17 2. Award Elastic up to treble its ascertainable damages, its costs, and its attorneys'
18 fees;

19 3. Award Elastic Amazon's profits attributable to Amazon's unauthorized use of 20 Elastic's ELASTICSEARCH mark, increased to adequately compensate Elastic;

21 4. Award Elastic all amounts by which Amazon has been unjustly enriched through 22 its use of Elastic's ELASTICSEARCH mark;

23 5. Award Elastic prejudgment interest;

24 6. Award such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

25 JURY DEMAND

26 Elastic demands a jury trial for all issues so triable.
